

Becoming a Contractor for Disaster Response & Recovery

Get registered to support your community!
(Free Open House)

February 23

1 pm - 3:30 pm

Pateros Fire Hall

191 Industrial Way
Pateros, WA

(Fire Hall: the big green building on river side of Highway 97)

Class is FREE
Space is limited.
Register online,
at the door,
or by calling
360.464.6043

See more government contracting events in Washington State:
[www.washingtonptac.org/
events](http://www.washingtonptac.org/events)

Approximately $10 million in contracts were awarded in Okanogan County during 2015*

If you're interested in providing the equipment, goods or services needed before, during, and after fire season to help aid fire & other incident support, you won't want to miss this workshop!

During this workshop, you will learn:

- About upcoming agency opportunities and needs
- How to effectively complete all required registrations
- How agencies buy goods and services during an emergency
- Preparation for government contractors
- About how federal funding affects disaster recovery
- Business continuity planning for government contractors
- Plus! Bring your questions about government contracting

Presentations by:

- Roni Holder-Diefenbach, Economic Alliance
- Michael Guss, NCW Economic Development
- Leslie Miller - Procurement Technical Assistance Center
- John Dicus - U.S. Small Business Administration, Spokane Branch
- Alan Fulk, USDA-Natural Resources Conservation Service
- Mariah Morris, U.S. Forest Service Contracting Officer
- Ronald George, U.S.F.S. Fire and Aviation Management
- Representatives from Washington State DNR – Northeast Region and Wildfire Division
- Hilary Lundgren, Chumstick Wildfire Stewardship Coalition
- Concluded with Q&A with all presenters

Followed by a Networking Open House, light refreshments will be served.

Class sponsored by:

*data pulled from FPDS.gov.

Image provided by: USDA <http://bit.ly/1OSFX2D>